AN ACT

To provide for light-houses and buoys in the cases therein mentioned.
Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That as soon as the proprietor of the south end or point of St. Simon's island in the State of Georgia, shall convey by good and sufficient titles, unto the United States, so much land on the south end of the said island, as the President of the United States shall deem sufficient and most proper for the site and accommodation of a light house; and the jurisdiction of the land, so to be conveyed, shall have been ceded to the United States, by the State of Georgia, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the treasury to provide by contract, which shall be approved by the President of the United States, for building a light house thereon, and for furnishing the same with all necessary supplies, and also to agree for the salaries or wages of the person or persons who may be appointed by the President for the superintendence and care of the same. And the President is hereby authorized to make the said appointments.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the treasury, under the direction of the President, be authorized and required to cause to be placed a buoy or buoys at such place or places on or near the bar of St. Simon's, as may conduce to the safe pilotage of vessels to and from the ports of Brunswick and Frederica.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the treasury to cause to be rebuilt in such manner as he may deem expedient, the light house at Clark's point within the town of New-Bedford in the State of Massachusetts.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the treasury shall be, and he is hereby authorized and required to cause a sufficient light house to be erected on Five-mile point, called, near the entrance of the harbour of New-Haven in the State of Connecticut, and to appoint a keeper, and otherwise provide for such light house at the expense of the United States. Provided, That sufficient land for the accommodation of such light house can be obtained at a reasonable price, and the Legislature of Connecticut shall cede the jurisdiction over the same to the United States.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That there be appropriated for the purpose of defraying the charges and expenses to be incurred in executing the two first sections of this act, the sum of seven thousand dollars;—for rebuilding the light house as aforesaid, at Clark's point, a sum not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars; and for the erection of a light house at the Five-mile point aforesaid, a sum not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars; which sums shall be paid out of any monies in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

PLOT AGAINST BONAPARTE--ARREST OF MOREAU.

LEGISLATIVE BODY--Paris, Feb. 17.

At two o'clock the councillor of State, Regnaud, De St. Jean D'Angely, Segur and Berlier, were introduced. Regnaud ascended the Tribune, and read the following Report made this morning by the grand judge to the First Consul:

Report of the Grand Judge to the Government.

"Paris, 29th Pluviose.

"Citizen First Consul,

"New plots have been formed by England; they were framed in the midst of the peace she had sworn to maintain; and when the violated treaty of Amiens, she relied much less upon her force than upon the success of her machinations. But the government was watchful; the eye of police followed the steps of the enemy's agents, and traced the measures of those whom their gold or their intrigues had corrupted.

"At length the plan appeared complete; already, no doubt, they thought at London that they heard the explosion of that mine which had been dug under our feet. At least the most sinister rumors were in circulation there, and the most guilty hopes were cherished.

"All at once the framers of the conspiracy are seized--proofs accumulate, and of such force and evidence, that they will carry conviction to every mind.

"Georges, and his band of assassins, had remained in the pay of England--his agents still over-run La Vendee, the Morbihan, and the Cotes du Nord, and vainly fought for partisans--the moderation of the government and the laws had deprived them of them.

"Pichegru, unmasked by the events which preceded the 18th Fructidor, year 5, unmasked more than any thing by that correspondence which general Moreau had addressed to the Directory--Pichegru had carried his hatred against his country into England.

"In the year eight he was with Willet, in the suite of the enemy's armies, in order to ally himself with the brigands of the fourth.

"In the year nine he conspired with the committee of Barentz; and since the peace of Amiens, he was still the counsel and the hope of the enemies of France.

"British perfidy associates Georges with Pichegru--the infamous Georges with that Pichegru whom France had esteemed, and whom the long believed to be incapable of treason.

"In the year eleven a criminal reconciliation unites Pichegru and General Moreau, two men between whom honor ought to have placed an eternal hatred. The police seizes at Calais one of their agents at the moment he was returning a second time to England. That man is in the hands of the police, with all the papers which establish the reality of a reconciliation that would have been inexplicable if the ties of it had not been formed by crime.

"At the arrest of this agent, general Moreau appears for a moment agitated. He takes under hand measures to ascertain whether government is informed upon the subject--but every thing is still and silent, and restored himself to tranquillity, he conceals from government an event which was of a nature to excite their vigilance. He conceals it, when even Pichegru is called publicly to the councils of the British ministry, when with a degree of éclat he unites himself to the enemies of France.

"Government would not see in his silence any thing but the fear of an avowal which would have humiliated him, in the same manner as they had been in his absence from public affairs in his equivocal connections, and in his more than indirect speeches, only ill-humor and vain discontent.

"General Moreau, who was liable to suspicion because he treated secretly with the enemy of his country, who upon this more than legitimate suspicion, would have been arrested at any other epoch, was suffered to enjoy in tranquillity his honors, an immense fortune, and the benefits of the Republic.

"Yet events pressed--Lajollais, the friend and confidant of Pichegru, goes secretly from Paris to London, returns from London to Paris, carries to Pichegru the ideas of general Moreau, brings back to general Moreau the ideas and designs of Pichegru and his associates. The brigands of Georges prepare in the very city of Paris all that is necessary to the execution of their common projects.

"A spot is fixed upon between Dieppe and Treport remote from all uneasiness and all superintendence, where the brigands of England, conducted by the English ships of war, were to land without being perceived, there they were to find men bribed to receive them, men paid to guide them during the night from station to station agreed upon, and to bring them even to Paris.

"At Paris an asylum is prepared for them, in houses hired before hand, where are trusty guardians; they have them in several quarters, in several streets, at Chaillot, in the Rue de Bacq, in the Faubourg St. Marceau, &c.

"A first landing is effected--it was Georges, with eight of his brigands.

"Georges returns to the coast to assist at the landing of Coffer St. Victor (condemned by the sentence passed upon the affair of the 3d Nivose,) and ten other brigands.

"In the early part of this month, a third landing is effected; it is Pichegru, of Paris, Armand, Gailard, the brother of Harold, Jean Marie, one of the first confidants of Georges, and some other brigands of that kind. Georges with Joyau, called d'Assur, St. Vincent, and Picot, called the Petit, precede this third embarkation--the union is effected at the farm of la Poterie.

"A fourth landing is expected. The vessels are in sight; but contrary winds prevent their approach; but a few days passed since they made reconnoitering signals.

"Georges and Pichegru arrive at Paris; they are lodged in the same house, surrounded by some thirty brigands, commanded by Georges. They see general Moreau; we know the place, the day, the hour where the first conference is held. A second rendezvous was agreed upon, and does not take place. A third, a fourth, took place in the very house of general Moreau.

"This appearance of Georges and Pichegru at Paris, these conferences with general Moreau are established by incontestable and multiplied proofs. The steps of Georges and Pichegru are followed from house to house to those who assisted in their embarkation; those who in the dead of night, conducted them from port to port; those who gave them an asylum in Paris, their confidants, accomplices--Lajollais their principal between, and General Moreau are seized. The effects and the papers of Pichegru are seized, and the police is following his steps with great activity.

"England wished to overturn the government, and by overturning it, to effect the ruin of France, and the abandonment of it to ages of civil war and confusion. But to overthrow a government supported by the affection of thirty millions of citizens, and surrounded by a strong, a brave and faithful army, was a task above the power of England and of Europe; hence England did not pretend to effect it, but by asslating the First Consul, and by covering that asslating the shade of a man whom the remembrance of his services still defended.

"I must add, that the citizens ought to feel no uneasiness. The greater part of the brigands are arrested, the rest have fled, and are warmly pursued by the police. No class of citizens, no branch of the administration is stained by a single suspicion.

"I shall not give more ample details in this report; you have seen all the papers; you will direct that all be placed under the eye of justice.

"The Grand Judge, Minister of Justice.

(Signed) "REGNIER."

NEW-YORK, April 25.

Capt. Pinkham has furnished the editors of this paper with London papers of the 16th ult. They state besides what we have extracted, that the king was so far recovered, that he took his usual walk in the queen's garden--That no less than twenty-seven more officers of distinction had been arrested for conspiracy, among whom were generals Perino, Macdonald, and Massena.

Accounts had also been received from the British squadron off Boulogne, of the capture of 5 gun boats, the linking of others, together with French transports. Capt. Pinkham informs that the British had destroyed, captured, sunk, or drove ashore, a considerable number of gun-boats, belonging to the French squadron at Boulogne.

The subsequent articles comprize whatever is interesting in the London paper of the 15th:

London, March 15.

WAR with SPAIN. It is reported in the political circles at the west end of the town, that this event is at no great distance. Indeed we have been confidently assured that letters of marque and reprisal are now preparing to be issued against the ships and vessels belonging to that power.

There are letters in town which state that the Emperor of Russia has by his ambassador at Constantinople interfered with his good offices to the release of the officers and crew of the U. S. frigate Philadelphia--Aurora.

Capt. Knowles, arrived at Boston, 68 days from the Isle of France, informs, that the news of the destruction of Benicoolen had been confirmed; and that an official account had been received of the surrender of Pondicherry to the English. The French troops who defended the place for a time with great bravery, were allowed the terms of capitulation which they had asked for.

A letter dated Cove of Cork, January 6, received in town on Saturday, mentions, that "the noted Arthur O'Connor made his escape from Grosvenor about three weeks ago. This place is in the mouth of Cork harbor. It is said he was in Dublin on the night of the 23d July last, and has been concealed ever since. The people of the boat which carried him to France, as soon as they landed him, set sail with his baggage: in consequence of which he wrote to government, describing the people--Lord Gardner, on this occasion sent for all the Corkhaven people, and soon picked them out; they are now in irons on board the guard ship in this harbor."

According to another account, Thomas Emmet was in company with O'Connor, and on their reaching the coast of Brittany the two gentlemen were marched into the country under an escort of soldiers, and the boat seized, and two soldiers put on board. The people of the boat enraged at being disappointed of their expected reward, threw the soldiers overboard, and put to sea, bringing off with them all the trunks and boxes, which have been given up to Lord Gardner, and are said to contain a great many curious plans, and a correspondence of the most extraordinary & important nature.

Accounts from the coast of Africa, state that the life of Goree had been assaulted and captured by a French national vessel and privateers from Cayenne.

The full blooded English Race Horse,

TUP

WILL stand this season, at the farm of James Garrard, jun. three miles from Paris, on Stoner, in Bourbon county; where he will cover mares at Twenty-two Dollars the season, to be paid the 1st day of September next, or Eighteen Dollars with the mare--Twelve Dollars the single leap, to be paid at the time of covering--Ten pounds to insure a mare with foal, and in case the owner sells or disposes of the mare, the owners of the horse, are discharged from all responsibility as insurers. The season will commence the 27th day of March, and end the 1st day of August. Good pasturage, well enclosed, will be furnished gratis, to all mares sent above the distance of twelve miles--board will be furnished servants that may be sent with mares from a distance, and every kind of grain upon the most reasonable terms; all mares sent, shall be strictly attended to, but we are not liable for accidents or escapes. TUP is a beautiful dark bay, full fifteen hands three inches high, remarkable for his strength, form and activity--he was brought from London, by Will. Smalley, in the fall of 1801, in the American ship Gen. Lincoln. He has covered two seasons in Virginia. Certificates from men of the first rank and respectability there, now in our possession, prove him to be superior, as a foal-getter, to any horse in Virginia, either imported or country bred. Numbers of mares put to the TUP, in Virginia, were put before, to the best horses in that state, and the foals by TUP, were superior in form and activity. Some few of the certificates are hereunto subjoined.

PEDIGREE.

The bay horse, called TUP, foaled in 1790, was gotten by Javelin out of Flavia. Javelin was got by Eclipse; his dam by Spectator; his grand dam by Blank; great grand dam by Second; great, great grand dam by Stanyan's Arabian; great, great, great grand dam by King William's black Barb, out of Christopher Darcy's royal mare. Flavia was gotten by the Ferrer's Arabian called Plunder; her dam, mits Eulton, by Snap; grand dam by Blank; great grand dam by Cartouch, out of the Sore Heels mare; great, great grand dam of Highflyer--TUP, in 1798, won a sweep stakes of an hundred guineas each at New-Market, (five subscribers) beating Mr. Heathcote's Vivalda, &c. from the Racing Calendar, for 1777.

W. FRAZER.

It is unnecessary to comment on the performances of old Eclipse. It is well known that at an early age he could distance any horse in England; and that it was found necessary, to publicly forbid his running any more, as no horse dare meet him. He afterwards covered at fifty guineas a mare. Javelin was one of his best sons. He covered at ten guineas a mare, and one to the groom. He is fire to some of the best horses on the British turf.

TUP, in his young days, was allowed by the best judges in England to be preferable to an Arabian, having all their sprightliness and elegance of limbs with the great strength of old Eclipse. Flavia at three years old won a sweepstake of a hundred guineas each, four subscribers at New-Market, see racing calendar for 1777, succeeding calendars prove her of high repute as a racer: she was many years kept as a fine brood mare and was always put to the best horses.

Every mare that is put by the season at first may have a spring season gratis, provided they do not prove with foal, and the season paid punctually agreeably to the terms of the advertisement. Those who put their mares at first by the leap are excluded from the chance of a colt next season gratis. Mares that do not prove with foal that have the next season gratis, must be sent before the tenth of April.

FESTIVAL.

Saturday, the 12th inst. being the day fixed on by the republicans for celebrating the cession of Louisiana to the United States; the military companies, commanded by Captains Bodley, Wyatt, Vanelet, and Klier, paraded in this town, and after going through their various evolutions, marched out to Mr. Maxwell's spring, accompanied by a large and respectable concourse of citizens, among whom were the Hon. John Breckinridge, one of our Senators in Congress, and the Hon. Harry Innes, Judge of the Federal Court for the Kentucky District; where they partook of an elegant repast, provided for the occasion; after which the following toasts were drunk, each of which followed by three cheers, and a discharge of musketry from the military companies:

1. The event we celebrate.
2. Thomas Jefferson, whose talents, patriotism and public services, endear him to the people—May he long continue in the presidential chair.
3. Aaron Burr—May his supporters never misinterpret the votes of the people.
4. Monroe and Livingston—The plaudits of their country, and the thanks of unborn millions are due for the distinguished part they have taken to extend the empire of liberty.
5. The people of Louisiana, raised to the rank of citizens—May they soon add another star to the American Constellation.
6. The Mississippi; the great emporium of the Western commerce—May its waters prove an antidote to modern federalism.
7. Amicable negotiation in preference to the desolation of war.
8. Commerce with all nations—May national prejudices, if any exist in the Western part of our union, be exported to sea with the first flood of our waters.
9. The ship-builders of the Western country—May their exertions prove a source of public and of private wealth.
10. The constitution of the United States; the world's best hope—May it long prove to the nations of the old world, the practicability of republicanism.
11. Economy in the management of our finances—honest friendship with foreign nations—moderation at home, and a wise administration of the government in all its departments.
12. The three departments of the government—May their rights be known and maintained, and no invasion of one upon the just and rightful prerogatives of the others.
13. The Indian tribes—May they forget war, and soon know the blessings of peace and civilization.
14. Captains Lewis and Clarke—May their enterprise prove beneficial to the United States, and their services meet the grateful acknowledgments of a generous people.
15. The Missouri—May its source soon be known, and the forests which obscure it, give place to cultivated fields.
16. Our Senators and Representatives in Congress.
17. The fair daughters of America—May their smiles sweeten the cares of life, and teach men virtue.

VOLUNTEERS.

After Mr Breckinridge had retired, John Breckinridge, our Senator in Congress—Virtue—patriotism.

The Volunteers of last fall.

Gen. Charles Scott—The tried veteran and firm patriot.

The company returned to town in the same order—the military companies formed round the court-house, and fired 19 volleys.

The pleasures of the day closed with a ball at Mr. Brauley's, where, amidst a brilliant assemblage of ladies, beauty presided, and joy beamed from every eye.

Paris, May 14th, 1804.

On Saturday, the 12th inst. being the day recommended for commemorating the acquisition of Louisiana to the United States, a large and respectable collection of citizens from Paris and its vicinity convened under an arbor prepared for the occasion, where great hilarity prevailed, and the utmost decorum was observed during the day. After an elegant dinner, the following toasts were introduced:

1. The 30th of April, 1803, the day that added Louisiana to the United States of America—May the wise policy which acquired it, ever be duly appreciated by a grateful people.
2. The President of the United States, the true patriot and benefactor of his country—May his calculations learn that "error of opinion may be tolerated where reason is left free to combat it."

3. The present administration—May we never forget the wisdom of its measures.

4. Livingston and Monroe, the able envoys, who negotiated the treaty for the acquisition of Louisiana.

5. Our brothers of Louisiana: May they soon feel the benign influence of freedom and equal laws.

6. Governor Claiborne and Gen. Wilkinson: They have our thanks for their meritorious conduct, when receiving possession of the newly acquired province.

7. The farmers, mechanics and merchants of the Western country: May their labours, while they add wealth to the union, be reciprocally beneficial to each other.

8. The ship-builders on the Mississippi and its tributary streams: May their enterprise and industry receive the patronage of our country.

9. Our fleet in the Mediterranean; success to its operations: May it speedily reclaim our captive citizens from bondage, and terminate the war with the Tapisians, or teach them justice from the mouth of the cannon.

10. Peace to the deluded nations of Europe: May they learn happiness by imitating our institutions and examples.

11. The liberty of the press: May it ever be free as at present, to investigate the official conduct of the officers of government, it being a good corrective of political errors.

12. The freedom of religion, and freedom of election; blessings we cannot too highly estimate: Let us always exercise, protect and preserve them, with the temperance and patriotism which become freemen.

13. The deceased hero and statesman George Washington: May his memory ever inspire Americans with gratitude.

14. The venerable Benjamin Franklin, the statesman and philosopher: May his virtues be recorded in the hearts of all true lovers of their country.

15. The heroes who fought and bled in defence of American liberty: May their descendants ever be as prompt in opposing tyranny.

16. The Congress of the United States: May its deliberations always be guided by wisdom, and a desire to promote the welfare of the people.

17. The Kentucky fair: May they bestow themselves on the deserving only

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

MONTPELIER MEDICAL WELL, In Scott county, Kentucky, on the waters of Lacount's run, about ten miles from Georgetown, twenty from Lexington, and fifteen from Frankfort, the property of the subscriber.

ellow Citizens of Kentucky, and the adjacent States,

The water of this well possesses the qualities of the Salt and Sulphur Springs at the Mud Lick; but much more efficacious as the qualities are combined in the same water, and may properly be called a Saline Sulphuric, Medicinal Well. This communication should have been made previous to this time; but was delayed from an ardent wish that a belief of the efficacy of the above water should be confirmed by the experience of last year. I am now happy in stating that the water is equal to any in this State, or any sister State, in curing many of those maladies which infest & weaken the human constitution. The efficacy of the water combined with its central & convenient situation to the most populous parts of the State, will make it of much greater public utility. Last season, from 50 to 100 people attended this spring, among whom many uncommon & extraordinary cures were effected by drinking the water. The roads to this Medicinal Spring from the different populous parts of this country, are very good, and carriages may pass with convenience.

Preparations are making for the accommodation of visitants.

Excellent pasturage may be had—more than ten acres of wheat and grass are now ready to receive horses &c. at a moderate price.

In a few weeks preparations will be made to accommodate a considerable number of visitants. Any person will be privileged to build a house for their accommodation, which shall belong to such person as long as he may think proper to occupy it—and when such person removes from it, the house shall be at my disposal until such person may with to re-occupy it again, who shall have the house two days after notice of such intention. The neighbourhood is thick settled and the market will be good.

I shall erect a large house sufficient to suit Gentlemen and Ladies who may visit this place for their health or amusement.

Capt. Dashiwood, arrived at Boston from Bordeaux, informs that Moreau was still in confinement, and that the commander of the Consular Guards, had also been arrested as an accomplice in the late conspiracy against the life of Bonaparte, and after a summary trial, was immediately shot, Pichegru and Moreau it was expected, would meet the same fate.

The accounts received from Port-au-Prince, by the Commodore Barry, arrived at Charleston, confirm the former statement of the dreadful situation of the unfortunate whites in that island. On the 16th, a horrible massacre commenced in Port-au-Prince, which was continued four days during which upwards of four hundred persons were killed. Defalines had arrived there on his way to St. Domingo, against which he was determined to bring all his forces:—but as he expressed himself, would leave no whites in his rear.

The London "Courier" of the 15th ult. (which has just been put into our hands by a commercial friend) contains the following articles:

"Pichegru had attempted to elude discovery by using crutches. It is said too, in some Dutch papers which have been received to the 10th, that he had been a considerable time in the Tuilleries before his arrest. To the question respecting the cause of his having quitted England, he replied that he left it to callen. Moreau to account for his conduct towards him, Moreau having denounced him to the directory. Being further pressed as to his having seen Moreau, he is said to have answered, "After what has passed between us, we can't see each other but with sword in hand."

"It is understood that Moreau is to be tried before a criminal court consisting of six judges; and that he is not to be allowed the benefit of trial by jury.

RICHMOND, (Va.) April 25.

COUNTERFEITS.

On the 15th inst. Thomas Logwood, of Buckingham county, a man of considerable wealth, was apprehended in this city, for counterfeiting United States Bank notes. Several of the notes we understand were found on him, and on his examination before the magistrates, sufficient evidence appeared, to induce them to commit him to jail, to take his trial at the next circuit court of the United States to be held for this district.

An express was immediately sent off by the executive to Logwood's house, where counterfeits of paper to the amount of eighteen thousand eight hundred dollars, also a number of base Eagles, Double Guineas, and all the machinery and apparatus for carrying on the nefarious practices, were found.

The public are particularly requested to be on their guard, as a vast number of the above notes are believed to be in circulation. They are to well executed as not easily to be distinguished from the genuine notes, except by the best judges and on the strictest examination.

ARCHD. McILVAIN, sen. 14th of May, 1804.

JUST PUBLISHED,

And for sale at this office.—Price 13 pence. AN APOLOGY FOR CALVINISM.

BY R. H. BISHOP,

Of the Associate Reformed Church.

The Celebrated Imported, and Real, bred Turf Horse.

Royalist,

HAS arrived from New-York, and will stand this season at the same stable with Paymaster, in this place, and under the direction and management of Mr. Peter Lott—He will be let to mare at the moderate price of 30 dollars, to be discharged at any time before the 1st of September by the payment of 20 dollars; 40 dollars to ensure a foal, to be returned if such should not be the case, if the mare remains the property of the person who put her to the horse, with 1 dollar to the groom for each mare, paid at the stable door. Attested notes for 30 dollars the season and 40 for insurance, to be sent with the mare, payable the 1st of January next.

ROYALIST is a full blooded racer, he was bred by his royal highness, the Prince of Wales, and sold to Thomas Bullock esq. who kept him as a racer until he was purchased by Mr. Abraham Skinner, who imported him in the ship James, from England to New-York—He is a beautiful bay, handsomely marked, with a star and snip, 15 hands 3 inches high, well proportioned, fine action, free from all blemishes, and while in England, performed equal to any horse of his age, as may be seen by the racing calendars, which are in the possession of Mr. Lott, free for the perusal of any gentleman. He has stood several seasons in America, and his colts are at least equal to any horse's, and are allowed, by competent judges to bid fair to make excellent racers.

JOHN W. HUNT.

Lexington, April 20, 1804.

N. B. Pasture will be provided for mares, but not accountable for accidents or elopings.

PERFORMANCES.

In 1793, at three years old, the first time he started, he won 400 guineas at New-Market, beating Lord G. of Devon's chestnut filly, by Pot 8 o's, out of Marine Gray, and the Duke of Bedford's colt by High-Flyer, out of Conegonde. He started for the Craven stakes, and beat Dan Devil, Agamemnon, Coriander, Seagull, Golden Rod, Fort William and six others. The next time he started, he won a subscription plate for fifty pounds each, beating Patriot, Cymbeline, Brimstone, Robin Gray, and seven others—He also beat the Duke of Bedford's colt by High-Flyer, and the Duke of Norfolk's gray filly by Dungannon, a sweep-stakes of 200 guineas each, at four years old—he beat Lord Egremont's aged horse Sea-Gull, a mare for 200 guineas, across the flat at New-Market, in 1795—He beat Don Quixotte, Galico, the Duke of Bedford's Cub, and Mr. Durand's filly, by Saltram, for the Craven stakes, and walked over the course at New-Market for 1200 guineas, and no horse dare start against him. He also beat several others of the most capital horses in England, too tedious to enumerate, but may be seen by the racing calendar.

PEDIGREE.

This is to certify, that the bay horse Royalist, I have sold to Mr. Abraham Skinner—he was got by Saltram, out of Eclipse; his dam by Herod; his grand dam, by Mark; great grand dam by Blank; great great grand dam by Driver; great, great, great, grand dam by Smiling Tom; great, great, great, great grand dam by Oytherfoot; great, great, great, great, great, grand dam by Commoner; great, great, great, great, great, great, grand dam the Duke of Somerset's Copper Mare.

This is a true pedigree.

(Signed) Thomas Bullock. London, March 31, 1796.

I do certify, that I am informed, that Royalist has stood as a covering horse in New-Jersey in the neighbourhood of my brothers, who has written to me, that he was considered as the finest horse, and best foal getter in that country. I have seen several gentlemen of integrity, who spoke very high of him—I also certify that in the neighbourhood that Royalist has stood, they are in the habit of breeding from the first English turf horses.

Benjamin Stout.

April 9th, 1804.

I do certify, that last season, I was in the neighbourhood that Royalist has stood, for several seasons, and saw some of his colts which were finer, than any others which the same mares had brought from other imported horses, also that I was informed by my father-in-law, (who is in the habit of breeding from the finest horses,) that Royalist is the best foal getter he has ever tried, and made the greatest season of any horse in that country last season.

John Harris.

Woodford County, March 26, 1804.

The imported Stallion Speculator,

WILL stand the ensuing season, which will commence the 1st day of March, and end the 1st day of August next, at the farm of John Breckinridge, esq. near Lexington, in Kentucky, and may cover mares at ten dollars the leap, to be paid at the stable door; twenty-four dollars the season, to be discharged any time before the first day of August, by the payment of twenty dollars; and forty dollars to ensure a mare to be with foal, to be returned if such should not be the case, if the mare remains the property of the person who put her to the horse; with one dollar to the groom in every instance. Attested notes for the season, and insurance to be sent with the mares.

SPECULATOR

Is now rising nine years old, is a very handsome horse, near sixteen hands high, a fine bay, with as many good running points as any horse on the continent, and is well calculated to get either excellent race, saddle or carriage horses; and has established himself to be a most capital stallion, as may be seen by his colts, which are now rising one year old—his blood is unexceptionable, and of the purest kind, as may be seen by his

PEDIGREE.

SPECULATOR was bred by the Duke of Beauford, and got by his favorite stallion Dragon, (now in Virginia, and covered 145 mares last season, at ten guineas per mare) who was son to Woodpecker, his dam by King Herod, a sister to Florizel, Bourdeaux, and Sting, and the dam of Portia, Narcissa, Jessica, and Tarantula; his grand dam by Cygnet, who was got by the Godolphin Arabian; his great grand dam by Cartouch, a very capital stallion; his great great grand dam Ebony, by Childers, out of old Ebony, by Baito, who was got by the Byerly Turk, out of Bay Peg, by the Leed's Arabian.

PERFORMANCES.

SPECULATOR has been a capital running horse—in 1793 he won once, being the only time on the turf that year—in 1799, being then four years old, at the New-Market Craven meetings, he beat Mr. Watton's Young Maggie, for 100 guineas—at New-Market second spring meeting, he beat Lord Sackville's famous horse Sober Robin, for 30 guineas—at the same meeting he won a handicap plate, of 50 guineas each, beating six good horses, among which was the celebrated horse Amator; the same day he received 41 1-2 guineas from Mr. Heathcote's Opposition—at the July New Market meeting he beat Mr. Collier's Young Spear, for 100 guineas, 7 to 4 on Speculator; at Brighton he won a handicap plate (the new course) 50 guineas each, beating Combatant, Alfort, Mr. Wyndham's horse by Fidget, Cyphers, Sister, Midnight, Play or Pay, and Opposition; at New-Market first October meeting, he walked over for a sweep stake of 50 guineas each, Bollenamuck and Combatant feating to run against him, paid him a forfeit; at the second October meeting he beat Mr. Wyndham's horse by Fidget, for 50 guineas, 5 and 6 to 1 on Speculator; making eight times he won this year, which is oftener than any other horse won in said year, and came in second, for a handicap plate of 50 guineas each, beating eight good horses, although he carried 7 lb more than any horse that started; in 1800 then 5 years old, at New Market Craven meetings, he beat Mr. Hayworth's filbert for 100 guineas carrying him 7 lbs. at the same meeting he won the great Oatland stakes of 50 guineas each (26 subscribers) beating Expedition, Wrangler, Herby-Laf, Stamford, Telegraphe, Antrim, and Vandall; all good horses—at the first New-Market spring meeting, he won a sweep stake of 50 guineas each (4 subscribers) carrying 12 stone 2 lbs. (say 170 lbs.) beating Lord Burford's Waymouth, with great ease, 7 to 4 on Speculator; at the second spring meeting, he received forfeit of 130 guineas from the Duke of Queensbury's chestnut horse Egmont, carrying him 4 lbs. I must be observed, that the great Oatland stakes is considered among the best races in England; at the end of 1800 he was taken with the distemper which put an end to his racing; and was then purchased of the Prince of Wales for me; and imported from London last fall. The above pedigree and performances of Speculator, are taken from the general find-book and racing calendars of England; the authority of which has never yet been called in question, and they are always referred as authentic records upon those subjects.

JOHN HOOMES

Bowling Green, Virginia.

The above horse was at our request, sent by John Hoomes esq. to this State, & will stand the ensuing season at the plantation of John Breckinridge, on North-Elkhorn, where very extensive and excellent blue grass pasture, well enclosed and well watered, will be furnished to mares coming at a distance, gratis.—The greatest care will be taken of the mares, and corn furnished if required, at the market price; but we will not be liable for elopings or accidents.

Mr. Hoomes has been in the practice for many years, of importing from England, the finest horses which that country produces; and from his character, and our acquaintance with him, the most implicit reliance can be placed in any certificate he gives.

Any person putting seven mares, and becoming responsible, gets one gratis; if the horse stands in the State, and continues the present owners, those mares that do not prove in foal, has the next year gratis, except the groom's fee.

ALEXIS,

OR THE SHEPHERD'S ADVICE.

WRITTEN BY A CAROLINIAN.

THE sun in the main had reclined,
And quickly departed the day;
The breezes blew pleasant and mild,
And drove the thick shadows away.

'Twas then by the side of a cot,
Surrounded by youths of the plain,
Alexis all cares quite forgot,
Recited the pastoral strain:

"Ye shepherds attend to my lay!
Ye maidens approach this glad place,
No herds o'er the wild mountains stray,
Nor hunter now urges the chase.

The moon appears pleasantly bright,
All nature looks peaceful and still;
Each meadow seems form'd for delight,
And Zephyrus sports on the rill!

What swain at his lot can repine,
Or wish to rich cities to go?
Felicity who would resign,
For luxury, sorrow and woe?

No meads there are scented with hay,
No blossoms disclose their perfume;
The lilies transplanted decay,
And the violet loses its bloom.

Then who from these valleys would part
Where landscapes continually smile?
Whose daisies can govern the heart,
And the pangs of each bosom beguile?

Believe me the truth I declare,
That Providence blesses this plain;
For riches are banish'd with care,
And happiness here holds her reign."

"I rifled light as air."

Original Jeu d'esprit... A certain Judge elevated with the juice of the grapes, entered a barber's shop in this vicinity (says a gazette printed in the State of New-York) a few weeks since, to get shaved. After the business was accomplished, he rendered the barber six-pence, who took it and returned three-pence change. "But how is this," exclaimed his honour, "you have always charged six-pence for shaving, and here you charged but three-pence." "True," replied the barber, "but you were half-shaved before."

WHEREAS a number of the officers of the late Revolutionary Army, were unfortunate enough to locate their claims in a tract of country, since found to be comprehended within the Indian claims. This is therefore to give notice, that application is intended to be made, in the name of all those who with redress, by petition to Congress; and little doubt is entertained, from the hardship of the case, but other land will be substituted. The agent who undertakes the management of the business, asks, as compensation, one-third only, of what land is actually located and ultimately saved, he being at all expense to patenting the land. All who wish upon these terms, their claims to be attended to, are requested to write forthwith, to Thomas Bodley, of Lexington, who will communicate with such agent.

NOTICE.

WE shall attend with the commissioners, appointed by the county court of Montgomery county, on Saturday the 2d of June next, if fair, or on the next fair day, on the waters of a creek of the Salt Spring fork of Licking, that leads opposite to the eastwardly or north-westerly branch of Lulaburg, at a white oak tree marked H standing on the bank of a Buffalo lick, and on the north side of the same—the lick is immediately on the north side of the creek, & a branch empties into the creek, on the north side of the same, in the lower edge of the lick, five or six miles more or less, down the creek, from Spencer Reid's improvement, which he assigned to v. Calk; and shall thence proceed to establish the beginning and other special calls in an entry made in the name of Stephen French, on two treasury warrants, No. 333, and 339, and to do such other things as may be deemed necessary and agreeable to law.

Wm. Calk,

W. W. Cook.

Mount-Sterling, May 1st, 1804.

War Department, Feb. 8th, 1804

Notice is hereby given,

THAT separate proposals will be received at the office of the secretary for the department of war, until the eighteenth day of May next ensuing, for the supply of all rations which may be required for the use of the United States, from the 1st day of October, 1804, until the 30th day of September 1805, both days inclusive, at the following places, viz:—

First. At Niagara, Detroit, Michilimackinac, Chicago, Fort Wayne, the post on the Miami of the Lakes, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the State of Ohio; and at any place or places within the Indiana territory, north of the 41st degree of north latitude.

Second. At South West Point, Tellico, Knoxville, Nashville, and within the Cherokee nation between Tennessee and Georgia, and on the Tennessee river, and on the road between said river and Nashville, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the States of Tennessee and Kentucky.

Third. At the garrison near Vincennes, on the river Wabash.

Fourth. At Fort Mastic, near the mouth of the Ohio, Kaskaskias, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the Indiana territory, south of the 41st degree of north latitude, (Vincennes excepted.)

Fifth. At St. Louis, New-Madrid, and any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited in Louisiana, north of the settlements on the river Arkansas.

Sixth. At Chickasaw Bluffs, Arkansas, Matamoras, Fort Adams, Fort Stoddard on the Mobile, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the Mississippi territory, and on the road between Natchez and the Tennessee river, (the post on said river excepted.)

Seventh. At New Orleans, and any place or places on the Mississippi river, below Fort Adams, and at Opelousas, Natchitoches, and at any other place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited in Louisiana, not before mentioned, or provided for.

Separate proposals will also be received as aforesaid, for the supply of all rations, which may be required for the use of the United States, from the first day of January, 1805, until the 31st day of December of the same year, both days inclusive, within the several States herein after mentioned, viz:—

Eighth. At Fort Wilkinson, Cockspur Island, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the State of Georgia, and on the Indian boundary between Georgia and the Creek nation.

Ninth. At Charleston, Rocky Mountain, on the head waters of the Santee, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the States of South and North Carolina.

Tenth. At Norfolk, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the State of Virginia.

Eleventh. At Fort M'Henry, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the State of Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Twelfth. At Fort Mifflin, Pittsburgh, Carlisle, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the States of Pennsylvania, New-Jersey, and Delaware.

Thirteenth. At Fort Jay, West Point, Albany, Schenectady, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the State of New-York, (Niagara excepted.)

Fourteenth. At Fort Trumbull, Fort Wolcott, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the States of Connecticut, Rhode Island and Vermont.

Fifteenth. At Fort Independence, (Boston harbour) and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the State of Massachusetts, (the district of Maine excepted.)

Sixteenth. At Portsmouth, Portland, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the State of New-Hampshire and the district of Maine.

A ration to consist of one pound and one quarter of beef or three quarters of a pound of pork, eighteen ounces of bread or flour, one gill of rum, whiskey or brandy, and at the rate of two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap, and one pound and one half of candles, to every hundred rations. The prices of the several component parts of the ration should be specified; but the United States reserve the right of making such alterations in the price of the component parts of the ration aforesaid, as shall make the price of each part thereof bear a just proportion to the proposed price for the whole ration.

The rations are to be furnished in such quantities, that there shall at all times, during the term of the proposed contract, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimackinac, Detroit, Niagara and Chicago for six months in advance, and at each of the other posts on the Western waters for at least three months in advance, of good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all and every of the Commandants of fortified places or posts to call for at seasons when the same can be transported, or at any time in the case of urgency such supplies of like provisions in advance, as in the discretion of the Commandant shall be deemed proper.

It is to be understood that the contractor is to be at the expense and risk of insuring the supplies to the troops, and that all losses sustained by the depredation of an enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States, shall be paid by the United States at the price of the articles captured or destroyed as aforesaid, on the deposition of two or more persons of credible character and the certificate of a commissioned officer, stating the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.

The privilege is understood to be reserved to the United States of requiring that none of the supplies which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts, shall be issued until the supplies which have been or may be furnished under contracts now in force, have been consumed, and that a supply in advance may be always required at any of the fixed posts on the Sea board or Indian frontiers, not exceeding three months.
